Agribusiness conference set Feb. 18 in Chumuckla

From staff reports

The University of Florida IFAS Extension and TEAM Santa Rosa Economic Development Council's 2010 Gulf Coast Agribusiness Conference is scheduled for Feb. 18 at the Chumuckla Farmers Opry.

Speakers from the Southeast region will provide area farmers with ideas for new crops and business models. A trade show will take place at the conference, with space for vendors booths and equipment displays.

The target audience for the conference is producers of all types of crops in the western Panhandle of Florida and Baldwin and Escambia counties in Alabama.

For registration or sponsorship information, call Robin Vickers at 983-5216, ext. 113 or Jennifer Walters at 623-0174.
