TEAM S-R announces new board

The TEAM Santa Rosa Economic Development Council this week announced its 2009-2010 Board of Directors and new officers:

They include Ferd Salomon, Chairman of the Board; Dave Hoxeng, Chairman-Elect; Dick Baker, Treasurer; Susan Nelms, Workforce Escarosa; Ed Gray III, Past Chairman; Mike Diehl, Ed Fortune, Gerry Goldstein, Bob Harriman, Don Jehle, John Myslak and Carrie Swilley.

Salomon is the new Chairman of the Board. He is a commercial real estate broker with NAI Halford, served as the Executive Officer of NAS Whiting Field from 1999 to 2001 and was the regional commander for all naval facilities in the Pensacola area from 2003-2004.

Hoxeng, Chairman-Elect, is the owner of Cat Country 98.7 Radio and serves on a multitude of community boards in both Santa Rosa and Escambia counties.

Baker, the board Treasurer, works for Gulf Coast Community Bank and is a local real estate developer. Nelms, board Secretary, is the Executive Director of Workforce Escarosa. Gray is the Past Chairman of the Board and Executive Director of Gulf Breeze Financial Services.

This is a volunteer board, and members serve a two-year term based on TEAM Santa Rosa's fiscal calendar. TEAM Santa Rosa's fiscal year is Oct. 1 through Sept. 30.

Lubkowitz selected for small biz summit

Adela Fernandez Lubkowitz of Gulf Breeze has been selected as one of more than 20 small business owners from across Florida to participate in a statewide small business summit next month in Tallahassee.

Lubkowitz, 52, is vice president of finance and business development for Separation Systems Inc. She is one of 15 employees for the small business, which provides specialty gas chromatography systems in the petrochemical and environmental industry. Lubkowitz is also the director of Workforce Escarosa, the workforce development board for Escambia and Santa Rosa counties.

Gov. Charlie Crist, Lt. Gov. Jeff Kottkamp, the Governor's Director of the Office of Tourism, Trade and Economic Development Dale Brill, and leadership from across the administration and the private sector will convene a daylong series of discussions and workshops aimed at establishing ideas that can foster and promote free competitive enterprise for Florida's small business owners.

Also representing Northwest Florida will be Ellen Hunt, 51, of Pensacola, owner of Head Hunters Hairstyling, a small business she founded in 1978.

These Pros Know!

Q What is your opinion about lawyers filing frivolous lawsuits?
A I'm not a lawyer, but I think frivolous lawsuits are becoming more common. I think it's a shame that you have to be able to afford a lawyer to get a case to court and I just can't imagine it's being filed a frivolous lawsuit.

Q How many people read Gulf Breeze News?
A Over 24,000 readers turn to Gulf Breeze News each week, and our website, www.gulfbreezenews.com gets over 1 million hits each month.
