TEAM Santa Rosa eyes agriculture programs

From staff reports

The TEAM Santa Rosa Economic Development Council conducted its regular board meeting in Jay on Monday, continuing efforts to take TEAM to various communities around the county.

Among items discussed were:

n TEAM is now accepting registrations for the summer's second season of the subscription-based Community Supported Agriculture program. For more information, contact Panhandlefresh@teamsantarosa.com.

n TEAM will participate in a check presentation ceremony on July 30 initiating the new U.S. Department of Agriculture revolving loan program intended to help local farmers fund capital improvements.
